About Kapi'olani Medical Center for Women & Children

Kapi'olani Medical Center for Women & Children is well recognized as Hawai'i's leader in the care of women, infants and children. It is Hawai'i's only maternity, newborn and pediatric specialty hospital. It is also a tertiary care, medical teaching and research facility. Specialty services for patients throughout Hawai'i and the Pacific region include intensive care for infants and children, 24-hour emergency pediatric and adult care, critical care air transport, and high-risk perinatal care.

The medical center is home to the Kapi'olani Women's Center and the Women's Cancer Center, and offers numerous community programs and services, such as specialty pediatric clinics, the Kapi'olani Child Advocacy and Protection Center and the Sex Abuse Treatment Center. Kapi'olani is an affiliate of Hawai'i Pacific Health. Learn more at Kapiolani.org.

Mission

The mission of Kapi'olani Medical Center for Women & Children is to create a healthier Hawai'i.

A History of Caring

Concerned about the welfare of Hawai'i's mothers and babies, Queen Kapi'olani founded the Kapi'olani Maternity Home in 1890. In 1909, Albert and Emma Wilcox donated the funds to open Kauikeolani Children's Hospital, a hospital for Hawai'i's children envisioned by Dr. James R. Judd and Sanford Dole. In 1978, the two hospitals merged to become Kapi'olani Medical Center for Women & Children.

Care Through Giving

As a not-for-profit medical center, Kapi'olani relies on community support to fulfill its mission. Through contributions to the Kapi'olani Health Foundation, generous donors play a vital role in helping Kapi'olani provide exceptional medical care for women and children.
