CREATING A HEALTHIER HAWAI‘I

About Hawai‘i Pacific Health

Hawai‘i Pacific Health is a not-for-profit health care system of medical centers, clinics, physicians and other care providers. Our mission is to create a healthier Hawai‘i.

Anchored by our four medical centers – Kapi‘olani, Pali Momi, Straub Benioff and Wilcox – Hawai‘i Pacific Health is comprised of about 70 convenient locations statewide. Hawai‘i Pacific Health’s network of doctors and specialists work together to provide a distinctive and effective model of coordinated care for maintaining the health and wellness of our patients, from treating simple illnesses to complex diseases. As a not-for-profit organization, Hawai‘i Pacific Health reinvests its earnings into patient care, community programs and improvements to medical equipment and facilities. It also means we invest in research, education and training, as well as charity care for underserved people within our island community. Learn more at HawaiiPacificHealth.org.

History

Hawai‘i Pacific Health was formed in December 2001 as a result of the merger of three longtime industry leaders, Kapi‘olani Health, Straub Clinic & Hospital and Wilcox Health. At the time, it became Hawai‘i’s largest health care provider with a combined history of 250 years of excellence.
